

If You Come From China

(Swedish Tune in A)

If you come from China, if you come from Spain, if you come from Portugal I love you just the same.
If you come from Russia, if you come from Rome,
if you come from anywhere it's here that you're at home.

You have heard it said, and you know that it is true.
Where your treasure lies your heart is too.
I treasure up the laughter that lightens up your eyes.
I treasure up your happiness, and there my treasure lies.

(Swedish Tune in A)

Some kids are from Haiti, some kids are from France.
Some kids are from Senegal and love to sing and dance.
Some are from Korea, some are from Peru
Some are from the Antilles, and they are dancing too.

All the little children all a-round the world
love to and play all day and dance and twirl.
When the sun is shining they're busy as can be.
When the sun has gone to bed they close their eyes, and sleep.

(Second Swedish tune in D)
