

Sweep Away the Stormy Skies

Laura Zaerr © 2007

(Flute instrumental)

Gather in the starry skies, and gather in the sunset.
All the stars are dancing in your eyes, there's no more need
to cry.

Sweep away the stormy skies, and sweep away the gloom.
All the stars are dancing in your eyes and laughing with the moon.

Sweep away the sadness, and sleep all through the night.
Soon the world in gladness will rise again, alive again,
will waken clear and bright again so...

Sweep a-way the stormy skies, and sweep away the fears.
All the stars are dancing in your eyes so sweep away the tears.

(Instrumental)

Sweep away the darkness that seeps into your soul.
Fill your tender heart with the memories of melodies and stories yet untold. So...

Gather in the starry skies, and gather in the sunset.
All the stars are dancing in your eyes, there's no more need to cry.
